

Climate Action Accelerator

OPEN CALL FOR TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

---

Application form:

Interested parties should complete and submit the following form.

---

What is the deadline for submitting an application?

August 1, 2023

What is the opportunity offered?

Hire an expert to provide targeted technical assistance free of charge.

Duration of TA:

- Short: up to 3 months
- Long: up to 6 months

Who can request technical assistance?

Members of the LEDS LAC Platform that are:

- Subnational Governments of Latin America and the Caribbean
- Government agencies
- Non-governmental organizations, businesses, technical bodies, or academic organizations that assist government agencies and have the endorsement of those agencies (written note)

Suggested topics:

- Transportation
- Energy
- Resource efficiency
- Public and private sector engagement

Preferred criteria:

- Requested by a member of a LEDS LAC Community of Practice
- Priority topics: transportation and energy
- Priority approaches: finance, public-private engagement, adaptation, transparency, and innovation
- Potential for replication by other governments at regional level in Latin America and the Caribbean

- Impact - Contributes to any of the following results:
  - Strengthen the capacities of beneficiary organizations
  - Propose, adapt or implement Laws, Policies, Regulations, Standards, or best practices
  - Encourage coordination and collaboration between different stakeholders
  - Contribute to the mobilization of climate investments

Prior Technical Assistance Case Studies. To access information about technical assistance projects that have already been executed, please click on the following link:

<https://www.ledslac.org/acelerador-de-accion-climatica/>

Additional information. A Webinar will be held on July 12 to resolve doubts and questions. Register for the webinar here.